INFO.

- 1. On 15 June 1951 a division with the substitute designation "Hong Fong Unit" arrived in Chinchiang (118-34, 24-54); it was later identified as a training division from the 43 Army. It was the major unit in the Chinese Communist attack on Hainan, and was stationed on Hainan until June, when it was sent to Chinchiang via Swatow. One regiment is now at Amoy and two are at Chinchiang.
- 2. All officers and men of this division can swin and are experienced in amphibious landings. Some companies won the title of "l'odel Hero Company in Amphibious Landings" from their Hainan experience. They were sent to Eulden to train units of the 3 Field Army and prepare ther for the Chinnen and Taiwan invasions.
- The Chinchian and Lungch'i (117-44, 24-43) Wilitary Districts have received instructions to form a training corps before the end of 1951. The best trained militia in these districts, numbering 25,000, will form the training corps. After training they will be incorporated into the Chinese Communist Army. TSC Li (左 夏)。 a cadre member from the Fulden Military District Command, arrived at Chinchiang on 16 June to assist in selecting individuals from the militia who will form the training corps.
